STIG ROSSEN & DISNEY

John Christoffersen has been personal manager of danish singer and actor Stig Rossen for the last 21 years.

Stig was educated from the prestigious Guildhall School of Music and Drama i 1990. Shortly after he was offered to join the ensemble of Les Miserables at Palace Theatre in London and after only 3 months he took over the leading role of Jean Valjean. He played the part allmost 1400 times in 7 different countries. In 2014 he was back in the role at Aarhus Theatre in Denmark and celebrated his performance number 1500.

In John Christoffersen ´s work relation with Disney, Kirsten Saabye contacted him regarding Stig Rossen and it became – and still is - a close and warm professional teamwork which has taken Stig Rossen into Disney ´s world. He has been involved in several productions such as Mulan, Tarzan, Brother Bear, Lilo & Stitch etc.
